

What to bring...

Campers should pack clothes for warm weather and cool evenings. Bring along a "book bag" style shoulder pack for carrying things around camp, don't forget your sleeping bag, pillow and pillow case, towel, washcloth, soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, pen and pencil, notebook, flashlight, bug spray, walking shoes, socks, sunscreen, bathing suit, and a white T-shirt for tie-dyeing.

DO NOT BRING FLIP-FLOPS!!

Adventure Campers...

Bring rough clothing! Make sure you have a pair of heavy pants, a long sleeve shirt, sturdy shoes, and good socks.

Bluestone does have basic equipment and gear to lend out, but please bring a waterproof container for your gear and a duffle bag for your clothes.

Make sure you understand and sign the Bluestone 2012 Covenant!

BLUESTONE 2012 COVENANT

In signing this application, I certify that the information required of me by Bluestone Camp & Retreat which I have submitted is correct. I hereby give permission 1) for the use of photographs that include my child(ren) for camp publicity; 2) for my child(ren) to be transported for approved out of camp activities; 3) for the release of medical records in case of illness. I understand that every effort will be made, in the case of an emergency, to contact the parents or guardian of campers. In the event that I cannot be reached, I give permission to the physician selected by the camp director to hospitalize, secure proper treatment for, and to order injection, anesthesia, or surgery for my child as named herein. Furthermore, I release Bluestone Camp & Retreat and the staff of same from all responsibility in cases of illness and/or accident.
